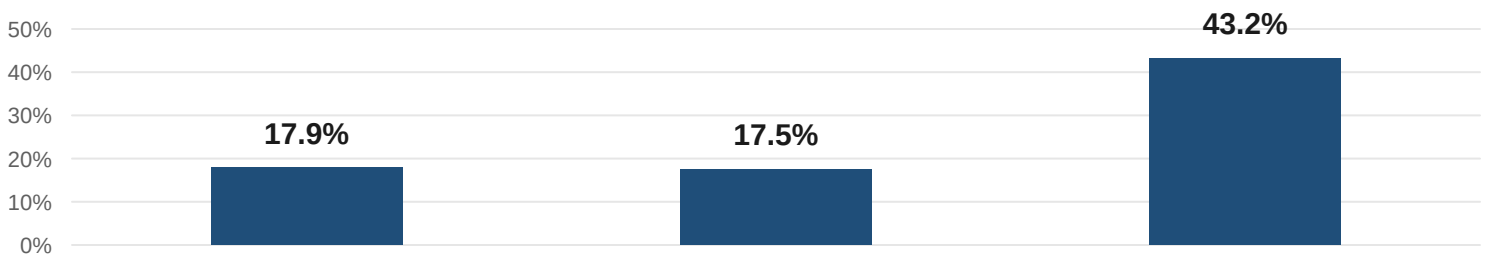
The same ratio, against three differently named populations

Share of self-sourced transitions, reported separately for each population the observer measured.



A count must be named as what it counts: the same phenomenon, measured over three populations.

Source: docs/audit_trace_probe.json -> A7_event_level_attribution | drawn by benchmarks/figure_papers.py